

Making Pharmaceuticals 2018

The UK's leading FREE TO ATTEND full product lifecycle exhibition and conference for Pharmaceutical professionals.

Register today and get free access to five full conference streams. With presentations covering a wide range of topics from industry authorities, business experts and governing bodies, including Regulations, GMP, Packaging, Serialisation, Active Ingredients, Excipients, Data Integrity, Medical Devices and Manufacturing Excellence.

Meet new business partners within the exhibition, offering the technology, services and expertise to ensure that pharmaceutical development, manufacture and delivery is of the highest standard and complies with the stringent regulations.

Making Pharmaceuticals is the annual event for the UK Pharmaceutical sector, bringing together 1500+ pharmaceutical decision makers, scientists and industry experts for two days of business, networking and learning.

Source technical, practical and intellectual solutions to enable the industry to move forward and overcome the many challenges that effective pharmaceutical development and manufacture face, today and for the future.

Two Days 150+ Exhibitors 80+ Technical Conference Sessions

